

Feb 1997 Gen Meetg

Minutes, General Meeting, February 19, 1997

SEIU 200B (Wynns, Feuer, McCullough, Whittlesey); SEIU 200A (Bonthus); CSEA 849 (Brill); CSEA 855 (Keane, Caughey, Wesche, Brown); IAM 1607 (Westervelt); UAW 802 (Keith, Brown); UAW 1326 (Smith, Teeter, Evans); Carpenters 603 (Steilen, Usefara); NYSUT-George Junior (Vollweiller); UUP-Cortland (Nash); Teamsters 317 (MacCauley); Carpenters 532 (Thomas); UUP-Syracuse HSC (Siwinski). Also 5 or so community people for Kate's talk.

1. Kate Bronfenbrenner made a presentation and responded to questions on strategies for organizing.
2. A motion by Bonthus, seconded by Keith, to increase the frequency of general meetings to six/year, on a bimonthly basis, was approved.
3. A motion by Westervelt, seconded by Nash, to amend the constitution to: a) reduce the number of seats on the Steering Committee to seven, with two alternates; and to b) provide for bimonthly meetings; was approved. Appropriate amendments will be drafted and sent to the membership, for action at the next General Meeting.
4. There was a discussion of the AFL-CIO's new "Union Cities" program for CLCs. We support the program and the goals, but are wary of signing on to something that may be too ambitious for us at this time.

NEXT GENERAL MEETING

WEDNESDAY, MARCH ²⁴~~19~~, 7:30, TC3 FORUM

Feb 1997 Gen Meetg

Minutes, General Meeting, February 19, 1997

SEIU 200B (Wynns, Feuer, McCullough, Whittlesey); SEIU 200A (Bonthus); CSEA 849 (Brill); CSEA 855 (Keane, Caughey, Wesche, Brown); IAM 1607 (Westervelt); UAW 802 (Keith, Brown); UAW 1326 (Smith, Teeter, Evans); Carpenters 603 (Steilen, Usefara); NYSUT-George Junior (Vollweiller); UUP-Cortland (Nash); Teamsters 317 (MacCauley); Carpenters 532 (Thomas); UUP-Syracuse HSC (Siwinski). Also 5 or so community people for Kate's talk.

1. Kate Bronfenbrenner made a presentation and responded to questions on strategies for organizing.
2. A motion by Bonthus, seconded by Keith, to increase the frequency of general meetings to six/year, on a bimonthly basis, was approved.
3. A motion by Westervelt, seconded by Nash, to amend the constitution to: a) reduce the number of seats on the Steering Committee to seven, with two alternates; and to b) provide for bimonthly meetings; was approved. Appropriate amendments will be drafted and sent to the membership, for action at the next General Meeting.
4. There was a discussion of the AFL-CIO's new "Union Cities" program for CLCs. We support the program and the goals, but are wary of signing on to something that may be too ambitious for us at this time.

NEXT GENERAL MEETING

WEDNESDAY, MARCH ²⁴~~19~~, 7:30, TC3 FORUM